Cementerio de la Recoleta - Buenos Aires

The Recoleta Cemetery is the oldest and most aristocratic cemetery in Buenos Aires, Argentina. It contains the tombs and mausoleums of Independencia patriots, presidents of the Republic, military people, scientists and artists. Many of the crypts and mausoleums were the work of famous architects and are adorned with sculptures. More than 70 of these are designated National Historic Monuments.

Stephen Harris photographed the cemetery while living in Buenos Aires, during 2006 and 2007.
